KCPF ON MISSION

At KCPF, we know just how important it is to have a Christian professional outlook in supporting the Church to promote and defend biblical values through research, advocacy, mentorship and witnessing. We also do know how challenging this can be, to stand firm and strong in our values.

Our resources are devoted towards promoting and protecting life and the family. We further defend and promote religious freedom in Kenya, that gives a voice to the diverse Christian denominations in Kenya.

Our mission is to empower the Christian professional workforce in giving it a voice and recognition in advocating for good governance practices, leadership and integrity in Kenya.

We, with the committees in place, continuously engage the government, other professional bodies and the public in governance.

Finally, we advocate for a value-based education system with Christian values in health, life and family, to shape the morals and values of the society, and for a desirous living.

What Breaks Your Heart?

It's easy to get discouraged by what's going on in the world. Almost everywhere we look, we see conflict, criticism, confusion, and chaos. There is no shortage of opportunities to point fingers, grow bitter, or give up. But a kingdom-oriented mind sees something else: plenty of opportunities to engage. There's perhaps no better time than right now to stand out.

Many believers wonder how. In a world with so many needs, you can't invest your life in all of them. Which ones are God calling you to meet? What breaks your heart? Which cause gets under your skin? What stirs you up? That will tell you a lot about how God is leading you to invest your life.

Nehemiah's heart broke when he received news from Jerusalem (Neh. 1:4). Things were going great in his own life—he held a good position as the Persian king's cup bearer—but the Jewish exiles who had returned to Jerusalem to rebuild it were suffering, and God's purposes were not being fulfilled. The walls of the city were broken, the people were discouraged and harassed by enemies, and God's promise that the temple would be restored to its former glory seemed lost.

As an organization, we have chosen to respond to the hurting world we see around us. We want to reach as many people as possible in a broken world that desperately needs God's truth, spread the truth and counter the culture of lies in our society for God's glory.

CHRISTIAN ENGAGEMENT WITH POLICY MAKING

On 29th June, 2023, KCPF participated in a consultative meeting to advocate for reproductive health policy. The aim of the meeting was to come up with strategies for adoption and implementation of the current reproductive policy through the diverse stakeholders engagement.

JOIN OUR COHORT

Commissioning classes are small mentoring groups that exists to encourage, equip and empower campus students to advocate for a wholesome and productive society that upholds biblical values.

We'd love you to get involved and join a group or a cohort so you too can be encouraged and equipped to boldly advance the course and be champions of change.
